NO CARS RUNNING

Strikers Still Hold the Fort in Indianapolis.

THE MOB IS STILL IN CONTROL

Their Action Upheld by a Magistrate Special Policemen Badly Beaten

Explanarous, Ind. Feb. 29 -The excitement throughout the city is most intense, and thousands have been parading the principal streets in anticipation of an attempt on the part of the atreet railway company to start its cars. About the courthouse and around the company's barn throngs stood out in a drenching rain, and on avery hand there was an expressed determination not to allow the cars to

When the special Policeman Beaten.
When the special policemen who had been aworn in appeared on the streets they were surrounded by the crowds and followed from place to place with hoots and yells, and all sorts of insults were heaped upon them. One extra was followed a dozen squares by an excited lowed a dozen squares by an excited mob, and was assaulted and badly beaten. He finally escaped and ran into the courthouse, where protection was afforded him.

The mayor at once realized that it would be impossible to run the cars under such circumstances, and he decided that he would not furnish police protection if the company was fool-ish enough to demand it. He called President Dugan, of the brotherhood, to his office and saked him to take the strikers from the him to take the strikers from the atreets and stop circulating petitions for the removal of President Frenzel. He then promised that the company should not run any cars during the day, and in the meantime an attempt will be made to reach a compromise of the differences between the company and the men. Dugan began calling his men from the streets and it is possible that trouble will be averted.

Upheld by a Magistrate.

Upheld by a Magistrate.

One circumstance which has caused the mayor to try pacific measures again is the fact that it was found impossible to do anything in the police court against the men who were arrested on Saturday. When these appeared a large growd was present, and each of the prested men asked a continuance. This was granted, and in doing so Police Judge Buskirk indicated pretty strongly that he did not propose to fine men to satisfy President Frenzel. He stated that it did not look well in the city to furnish its not look well in the city to furnish its pite, and everything indicated that he strikers would be released if trists vere insisted upon.
